DISCUSSION POINTS:

Local Governments including Adams County are required by C.R.S. 29-1-603 to have an annual audit performed on the financial statements. The County's financings also require annual audits as continuing disclosure.

The County’s annual audit includes two primary components in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). The Financial Section includes the County's Financial Statements. The Compliance Section includes the Single Audit which was conducted in conformity with the provision of the Single Audit Act of 1987, the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996, and Title 2 U.S. Code of Regulation Part 200. The County's audit firm gives opinions related to these items.

CliftonLarsonAllen LLC has been selected as the County’s External Auditor.

The CAFR is available at:

Despite pandemic stoppages, farmers see potential for growth

By Liam Adams
Tuesday, May 19, 2020 at 5:46 pm (Updated: May 22, 10:32 am)

Cars driving on the highway are barely audible. There’s almost no one around, except for a couple of farmers on the back of a John Deere who are plopping raspberries in the ground. They’re wearing masks, but society’s absence and nature’s fullness make COVID-19 seem less worrisome.

“This is routine stuff. We’d be doing it without the pandemic,” said Tim Ferrell, co-owner of Berry Patch Farms. “We’re not stressed about getting the plants in the ground.”

While everyone is adjusting in major ways to the pandemic raging around them, Ferrell is doing something the same way he did last year. At least for now.

When the berries are ready for harvest, locals flock to Berry Patch’s fields to pick their own assortment. It’s sort of impossible to do that this year and maintain proper social distancing, however, Ferrell said Berry Patch is figuring out a reservation system.

It’s similar for other farms in the Historic Splendid Valley, a county designated area that protects farmland. Most are planting their crops right now as they usually do. But many farms aren’t sure what will happen when harvest season comes around.

- Garfield County and other parties filed a motion to delay Mega Rulemaking 2 by one month; AdCo Supported this motion, new effective date of rules is December 1, 2020
- The City of Brighton and Town of Lochbuie are interested in potentially submitting statements of support for many of AdCo’s proposals and positions in their prehearing statements
Air Quality Control Commission (AQCC) – Regulation 7

Overview

• COGCC has removed all proposals related to air quality monitoring from the draft rules, this topic is instead being regulated via AQCC Regulation 7 rulemakings
• COGCC draft rules can require Operators participate in CDPHE studies related to air emission and cumulative impacts
  • AdCo Staff proposes added specificity and actionability of these rules as it pertains to cumulative impacts and air quality

Air Quality Monitoring

• Requires Air Quality Monitoring during pre-production operations and for at least the first 6 months of production, beginning May 2021
• Requires Operators to conduct ambient air monitoring for 3 days prior to start of operations
• Operators must collect speciated VOC samples in certain instances
  • AdCo Staff proposes additional requirements to strengthen these protections to include:
    1) Increased specificity for air quality program design requirements and submittals, including a 2-week baseline study
    2) Requirement that air quality monitoring be completed by an approved third-party
    3) Expanded list of pollutants required to be monitored
    4) Enforcement mechanisms and corrective action procedures
Air Quality Control Commission (AQCC) – Regulation 7 (Cont.)

Overview

Air Quality Reporting & Data

- Operators must submit monthly reports to the Division during air monitoring period(s):
  - Reports must include raw data, phases of operation, results of speciated samples; among other information
  - AdCo Staff proposes additional requirements that increase access and transparency of air quality data to include:
    1) Local Government consultation and involvement
    2) Increased reporting frequency to at least weekly during pre-production
    3) Real-time data sharing with CDPHE and Local Governments

Additional Emissions Reductions

- Emissions reduction from temporary, pre-production equipment
  - Requires equipment capable of at least 98% destruction efficiency
  - Prohibits open-top vessels and storage tanks
- Increased monitoring, inspection, measurement and reporting requirements for pre-production equipment
- Emissions reduction requirements for large combustion engines used at oil and gas locations
  - Sets new state-wide standards for hazardous pollutants from engines
  - AdCo Staff is generally supportive of these proposed requirements
