

DISTRICT PLAN NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING

Eagle View Adult Center
1150 Prairie Center Pkwy, Brighton, CO 80601

Monday, Nov. 14, 6–8 p.m.

The City of Brighton's Agricultural Preservation Sub-Committee invites you to attend a neighborhood meeting to share information and celebrate the history and future of agriculture in the South Brighton area. Representatives from the City of Brighton's Planning and Development department and the Adams County Long Range Strategic Planning and Parks and Open Space departments also will be available at the meeting.

Agenda:

- An update on the Adams Crossing Development (across Sable Blvd. from the Adams County Government Center)—Quint Redmond, Agriburbia
- An update on the restoration of the historic Bromley Hishinuma Farm and future plans
- Information on implementation activities for the recently adopted joint Adams County and City of Brighton District Plan, and work to expand the Agricultural Preservation Sub-Committee into a joint County/City District Plan Commission
- Information for interested property owners regarding development opportunities and developer forums/meet-and-greet events
- Public Comment

A sign-up sheet for residents willing to be interviewed for a graduate student project to record and promote the agricultural history of the area and individual farmsteads will be available.

For questions or for more information, please call Rachel Bacon at 720.523.6992 or email rbacon@adcogov.org.

Esta información está disponible en español. Por favor llame a Rebecca Zamora para más detalles: 720.523.6991.

