

Purchasing Food Online, Using SNAP

Did you know you can use your SNAP benefits and Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) cards to buy groceries online? Some stores accept EBT cards for home delivery and/or curbside pick-up. Residents can use their SNAP benefits for online purchasing at the following retailers.

Walmart Delivery and Curbside Pick-up

Delivery: Use SNAP or cash-assistance benefits for delivery within 10 miles of your local Walmart store. A $7.95-$9.95 delivery fee applies and can't be paid for with SNAP benefits.

Curbside: Use this three-step process to order groceries through curbside pick-up.

- 1) Order groceries at walmart.com/grocery or on the Walmart Grocery mobile app.
- 2) During checkout, select EBT Card as payment method.
- 3) Swipe EBT card with the Walmart associate upon arrival at the pick-up location.

Amazon Delivery

Add your SNAP EBT card to pay for eligible groceries, including free access to Amazon Fresh. Once your card is added, shop Amazon groceries—including Amazon Pantry and Amazon Fresh. Enter your EBT PIN to pay. Delivery fees and locations vary, and fees can't be paid for with SNAP benefits.

King Soopers Curbside Pick-up

King Soopers offers curbside pick-up at many stores. Items are selected online and the EBT card is swiped at pick-up. SNAP does not cover service fees.
